

King DeChiara

April 15, 2018 - October 7, 2024

My loving boy king. You gave us the best 7 years dog parents could have. You were the best companion and your hugs were to die for. Your sense of care and love was insane. When someone was sad or upset you were there for them. You loved your mom and dad, siblings and home. You lived a good life and was there through everything plus some. You came up with us. You were a bestfriend, and that's an understatement. You will be so missed and so loved. The house is so quiet with out you, but I know you have all the zoomies where you're at. We love you, kingy jo jo.
