Our Beloved Kiwi~

Sunlight streams through window pane onto a spot on the floor...

then I remember,

it's where you used to lie, but now you are no more.

Our feet walk down the wooden floors and muted echoes sound...

then I remember,

it's where your paws would joyously abound.

A voice is heard along the road, and up beyond the hill,

then I remember,

it can't be yours — your golden voice is still.

But I'll take that vacant spot of floor and empty muted hall, and lay them with the absent voice and unused dish along the wall.

I'll wrap these treasured memories in a blanket of our love, and keep them for our beloved, Kiwi until we meet above.

Your brother, Bruno, waits for you at the Rainbow Bridge.

We love you and you will live in our hearts for eternity.
