

Lemmy Durley

January 15, 2024

"On January 15th at 2:30pm I said good bye to best bubs I've ever known. Survived by his sister Mabel, Lemmy was the most sweetest, kindest, gentlest boy. Since the day I drove to Buckeye Lake to get both of them, I knew he was special, always there when I needed a friend, and always ready to share his love. He loved old boot laces, rattle mice, laying in the sun and belly rubs, he also always appreciated a treat. He was able to meet and make so many friends during his time on this earth, and I can only hope he knows how loved he truly was, and how missed he will be. Fly free my sweet boy, may the universe guide you on your next journey."
