~LEXI~

It has taken me awhile to fill out the paperwork to get my beloved dog, Lexi's name plate. We got her from an animal shelter, and a few days later found out she had Parvo. In the middle of the night we went to a local vet that saved her life. She was the most kind, loving, protective dog. She loved being outside, rain, snow, sun. She was our baby. We miss her everyday. I only hope she knew how much we loved her. Lexi, watch over the girls. We love you!
