

Lexie Munro

October 24, 2009 - September 14, 2022

Lexie came home to us in February of 2010. She was a spunky, cute, little ball of fluff. No one was sure about her beginnings but what we did quickly learn was that she was afraid of birds. Terrified. She followed Alex everywhere and learned everything from him. He tolerated his new fluffy shadow like a champ and taught her well. Lexie loved her car rides, fries, cheese, watermelon, pumpkin, sweet potatoes, cucumber, blueberries and her beloved, Wendy's chicken nuggets. Her favorite time of day was bedtime. Lexie was all about checking locked doors, turning off lights and hurrying to get tucked in. Lexie had her very first plane ride in April of 2022. She was a big fan of checking out the food at the airport. She loved going to Florida and seeing her grandparents and Finley. She would have loved to have a golf cart in Ohio. She didn't like the dark or lightening. She loved smelling everything. "Ooo, Lexie, smell this". Candles, lotion, soap, or food. She was a good listener. She was a sweet girl, and we are heartbroken she needed to go. We know Alex welcomed her right away and they are cuddling together again. Momma loves you, Lexie. Be a good girl.

“ I will always remember Lexie for her sweet expressive eyes, and her funny antics. She sure was a talker to her Momma. I loved all the videos you shared of her, and Alex. She was the sweetest, and cutest Baby Girl. I can imagine her playing with Alex, and my Chin Chloe Grace in heaven at Rainbow Bridge. 🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾 They sure take a piece of our hearts with them when they leave. Hugs Suzy. 🍷🙏🍷
