

Lil Boy Plewes

August 22, 2007 - August 11, 2019

To my beloved Lil boy who when we first met you were scared and had been mistreated by 2 other family's before you made your way to me. I admit wasn't sure if it was going to work but i took you into my heart which later you just stoled. You used to sleep by my side and be my snuggle bug. We had 10 long years but it will take longer to overcome the lost i feel now. Love your mommy!
