

Little Boy Staats

April 3, 2025

This is Little Boy. In December of 2022, I noticed 2 stray kittens playing by my driveway, him and his brother. They played and snuggled together in an heated cat house I made for them complete with a camera so I could keep watch over them. His brother moved out a few years later but Little Boy stayed and was a beautiful sweet little boy who tried to be a friend to all the other strays. The girls loved him, the boys wanted to fight him. We even had our own special “meow” we would greet each other with. He was a very happy and carefree baby. He passed away 04/03/2025 at the vet hospital from failed liver/kidneys. He will be missed 🐱👤
