

Louschus Stapleton

October 25, 2001 - September 10, 2017

Louschus was one of the sweetest dogs ever. They even loved him at the vet because of how gentle and happy he was. He adored our three girls and had a particular soft spot for our youngest - Samantha. For 16 years we had the privilege of giving him a home - he gave us more back than we could ever imagine.

God speed little buddy - go play with Maximus!
