

Luca

January 15, 2016 - June 21, 2017

We were searching for a kitten and found an ad on Craigslist, but it didn't have a picture of the kitten. When we got there, we were so happy to see this beautiful, scared Siamese kitten. We took our little marshmallow home where he lived with us and enjoyed life every day. Luca loved to go outside where he could watch birds and chase bugs. He liked his belly rubbed and always relaxed in funny positions, which brought us laughter. Luca talked to us with his cute chirps and meows and we'd mimic him for conversation. He didn't live long but we hope his life with us was the best he could've had. We love you, Luc. Forever.
