

Lyanna Brown

January 30, 2020

On February 2, 2019 I met one of my very best friends ever. I was introduced to Lyanna at Cozy Cat Cottage in Powell that day and I knew right away I wanted her in my life. One week later, she became part of my life when I adopted her and brought her home with me. It was one of the very happiest days of my life.

January 30, 2020 will always be one of the very saddest days of my life: it's the day I had to take my beautiful special quiet girl in to her doctor for the last time and say goodbye. I've been crying and grieving for Lyanna every day since and there are more days of crying and grieving ahead, but I'm also able to smile remembering the complete love we had for one another and the fun happy memories of our time together. I'm so very grateful I had this time with her.

Lyanna, I miss you terribly, sweet girl. I remember how you would always wait in the front window, looking for me to come home; I know you'll be waiting and looking for me when we see each other again one day. And we will, I promise you.

Lyanna, thank you for making my heart happy when it's been sad and for being one of my very best friends ever. I love you forever, God bless and keep you.

Tribute Wall

ST

“ You gave her a wonderful year. She knew love with you. Thank you for loving her so much. Hugs to you and Tiara.

-----
Stacey - February 08, 2020 at 11:08 AM

AN

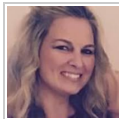

“ Thank you for loving this special girl...

-----
Ann - February 07, 2020 at 07:20 PM

SH

“ I'm so very sorry for your loss. Thanks for giving her precious and wonderful time and memories.

-----
Stephanie H. - February 07, 2020 at 05:01 PM

I am so sorry. Pets are truly family. What a heartfelt tribute, it's clear she was loved so much. Thank you for giving her such a great life. 💜

-----
Melissa Schmidgall - February 07, 2020 at 05:07 PM