

Yogi

February 16, 2018

I was the third of three German Shepherd dogs who came into my dad's life after he retired. He loved us all but I think I was BEST. I started as a drug sniffing dog but failed. I would rather play than work, play we did. Tell dad it's ok to have another German Shepherd come into his life - just don't call him YOGI!