

Marco Roeth

January 19, 2018

Marco was a constant companion, through good times and bad. From high school to having my first child, he was always by my side. He will be greatly missed and fondly remembered. He was truly part of the family.

Meagan Roeth