

Marley Ganger

October 31, 2022

Marley, Today I realize you're not going into the new year with me and I must say my goodbye to you, MY BEST FRIEND. On October 31, 2022 God chose you to leave my side. I was not ready, nor would I ever be! I have been dreading this post to say my final goodbye and share who all you have touched in this lifetime. Marley Man - You were a gentleman, a prince, and most of all of my best friend. I will never forget the strength you gave me, the never ending game of ball, shopping with you at Easton, sneaking you into restaurants and your sweet kiss on my nose or that you loved to ride on my shoulders for car rides. The walks in German Village will never be the same. God knew I needed you. He placed you in my arms to help me get through our 10 moves, the horrible break ups and the birth of my three beautiful children. You made me feel like I was never alone. I could not have done it without you. This goodbye doesn't mean that I don't love you anymore; it means I am thankful for all the love you've given me. You will always be the most precious soul I've ever seen. It means I am honored to have been your mama. I will always be your Mama and you will always be my Marley Man.
