

Max Franks

November 30, 2010 - January 25, 2025

A golden heart stopped beating. Our baby Max is at Rest. God broke our hearts to only prove he takes the Best. Thank you for the 14 years of being the best furry companion anyone could ask for. As far as I can see, Grief will never truly end, it may become softer over time, more gentle. Some days will feel harder than others. I miss you so much. Forever in Our Hearts, Max.

“ I work at Pet Palace and got the privilege to take care of him while he stayed with us! When he was there if you saw me i had Max in my hand always. I remember the first time he got comfortable enough to fall asleep on me instead of look around ☐ my little buddy I miss him so much already. He truly did add so much happiness to my heart ☐

What a trooper max was. He certainly had me laughing. He was so spoiled he could make someone jealous. I am so sorry for your loss. He will never be forgotten. Miss you Max.

Today marks a month that you have been gone from us and we think about you everyday. You were our favorite hello and our hardest goodbye! It still feels unreal. You left paw prints on our hearts and we are forever changed. I loved you for your whole life and I'll miss you for the rest of mine. My Baby, Max     Love, Momma Bear.
