Maximillion Moore-Banks

December 12, 2008 – November 29, 2019

Maximillion came to us when his owner and my best friend passed. I promised her I would take care of him; but his gentle, kind, fun-loving spirit took care of me and brought so much joy to our family. His comforting presence helped me grieve my best friend and got me through the loss of my parents shortly thereafter. I would talk to him on our morning walks; and he would knowingly look up as if to say, "I hear you."

Maximillion lives on in our hearts and will forever be my comforting angel.
