

Mia Walsh

January 17, 2024

Mia crossed the rainbow bridge January 17, 2024. My little Mia, gone much too soon.

Mia was a rescue and very shy at first... well, until she'd unleash into her wild zoomies at about 8:30 pm every night (cute puppy growls included)! Then her love of doggie daycare and visiting friends in the neighborhood, helped her confidence grow every day.

So many memories in the short time we had together, is what makes my heart ache every day.

A few of the memories: Evening zoomies. Her fabulous nose as she'd sniff and track scents on walks. She'd know the best paths to go visit her furry-friends & would carry a toy ... for at least part of the walk. She had her favorite homes to stop at to see her 'human friends' for pets and sometimes even treats. Pulling out a last-minute graduation from basic dog training (in our defense, Mia was battling digestive issues, but once we had a safe and desirable treat it all fell into place). Her excitement when her aunts would visit. Her strong bark when her uncles would visit. My co-pilot on rides. My home-office mate. And most of all... the velvet ears and the snuggles, the wonderful snuggles from my little-weighted-fur-blanket.

I was there for her and she was certainly there for me. Mia and I tried to get her through her recovery, but it wasn't meant to be. With a very heavy heart I now hope my little Mia was welcomed by those who have passed before her and that they are all running and playing and snuggling.

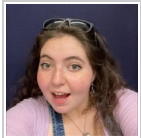

Tribute Wall

MA

“ mia in playgroup with my fur baby ☐

madison - May 25, 2024 at 02:03 PM

“ Mia was just the best girl and the sweetest little lady. She always wanted to rub her nose so you had to keep an eye on her while she was outside. One day I wasn't paying attention and she ran right up to me with a big chunk of dirt on her nose! She was so proud of herself. I still miss her everyday and I know her little boyfriend Rocky does too, but we know she's in a better place now.

Aubrey Nunn - May 22, 2024 at 08:40 PM

AS

“ i will miss Mia so much at Pet Palace ! she was such a perfect girl and so playful, her friends miss her just as much. sending you all the love ☐☐

ashley - May 21, 2024 at 10:02 PM

PP

“ Pet Palace lit a candle in memory of Mia Walsh

Pet Palace - May 21, 2024 at 03:46 PM

TB

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Mia was a very special girl and she will be missed! I loved her greeting when I would come visit. It was so cute how she would carry a toy on walks - many times choosing the one that had no stuffing left :). Her wonderful snuggles will be missed, too.

*Love,
Terri, Rob, Kevin and Archer*

Terri Bollinger - March 04, 2024 at 11:39 AM

AM

May Almighty Father God bless and continue to comfort the family

Anthony martin - March 06, 2024 at 07:43 PM

TB

“ 2 files added to the tribute wall

Terri Bollinger - March 04, 2024 at 10:57 AM

TB

“ Terri Bollinger lit a candle in memory of Mia Walsh

Terri Bollinger - March 04, 2024 at 10:41 AM

BR

“ God has called his little angel home. She will always hold a special place in our hearts and in our memories. Mia is in a safe and peaceful place now. We will see soon Mia, in the meantime run, jump and play, have fun sweetie.

BrandonHutchins - February 23, 2024 at 07:32 AM

MH

“ Michelle Hutchins lit a candle in memory of Mia Walsh

Michelle Hutchins - February 23, 2024 at 07:05 AM

MH

“ Mia will always hold a special place in my heart. Her ability to hear my car pull in driveway and be right at the door as I arrived was heartwarming. It always brought a smile to my face and made all my worries go away. She was ready to play even before I got my shoes off :) She did her little nose bumps to smell and see what other dog I might have been around (my little Pekingnese that sometimes she thought was a toy lol). I loved how she wanted to carry a toy on her walk and her Mom let her choose which one (Which her Mom carried on the walk back.) Her Mom was so good to her...celebrating every holiday with a toy and treats!!! Mia also was a great cuddler, loving to nuzzle into blankets and people. A true weighted blanket which she always knew when you needed it most!!!

I am sure she is playing with all her pet friends and family that have crossed over the rainbow bridge! She is an Angel that will forever look over all of us. You are missed and loved.

Love Aunt Mickey

Michelle Hutchins - February 23, 2024 at 07:04 AM

MH

“ 4 files added to the album Memories Album

Michelle Hutchins - February 23, 2024 at 06:53 AM

“ 5 files added to the album Memories Album

Schoedinger Pets Memorials & Cremation Services - February 05, 2024 at 08:22 AM