

Missy Lynn Brown

January 17, 2004 - November 4, 2018

Missy was the most beautiful, loving, sweet, kind, wise, very, very smart, confident and proud dog ever. She decided a long time ago it was her job to take care of us, rather than the other way around. She loved all people, children & other dogs, no matter how they treated her. I sang this song to her since she was a baby. And made this poem.

"I love my little Missy. My Missy, Missy Moo. I love my little Missy. Oh yes, oh yes I do."

Music would always calm her. And she would sit by me when I played the piano always.
