

Mittens Stegemiller

November 8, 2023

Mittens came to live with us in March or April of 2008. Our daughter, Christy, called me on a cold and windy night when Mittens was on her front porch pounding on her window wanting to come in! As Christy had been telling me for some months NOT to feed the kitten (advice I had NOT taken), she felt it was MY duty to come and take her home as a severe winter storm approached out of Chicago! I did as directed, and no one could have asked for a more loving cat than she turned out to be for the next 16 years! A little cautious around grownups at first, with time, she warmed to all who were friendly towards her! Most mornings she would find time to sit in my lap as I gave her tummy a rub or two while reading my morning mail. As the years passed, she came to enjoy sleeping in the big bed, between Mary and I! We will all miss her, and look forward to seeing her again, along with our other pets, on the Other Side of the Bridge! Say "Hello" to Piper, Truman, Enzo, Killian, Leo, Sophie and Franklin for us Mittens! We miss them as well! Years ago, someone asked Will Rogers, "Do you believe all dogs (and cats) go to Heaven?" His answer was spot on for me! "If they don't, then when I die, I want to go where they go!"
