

Mochi Macdonald

December 29, 2012 - January 16, 2022

My dear sweet Mochi was my very 1st dog. I had been a cat person before I adopted her 9 years ago. She loved to cuddle and adored other people and played with such joy. She was a true companion who in her last year was talking to people when we were on our walks together. Although I would love to love another dog, there will never be as sweet or better companion than my cavachon. She was smart, beautiful, and loving. I will miss her for a long time.
