

Mya Castle

May 18, 2016 - December 19, 2022

I got Mya right after my dad died. She was the sweetest dog ever. She was our gentle giant. She was there right by my side while I was battling cancer. I would just look at her and she would make me feel better. We miss her and will always love her.