

Nala Anguiano

April 1, 2021

My Nala of the Nala's, my champion, my best friend. You were something else Nala. You definitely ruled the house and we definitely knew it. You had a silly, goofy, loving personality, but you were also serious. You definitely had no fear to let the bigger dogs know, or anyone that passed by, barking to no end. You also had small dog syndrome which was so fun and funny to watch. You were the sweetest dog ever!! You gave the best kisses in the world. You loved who you loved. I love you my big girl and will miss you so much. The house feels a lot different now that you are gone. Miss your silliness and cuddling with you. Miss everything about you. I know we will see each other again one day. Mom loved you so much.
