

Neko Toney

December 12, 2014 - July 20, 2024

Neko came into our lives on Valentines day 02.14.2015. He was 10 weeks old when we picked him up. Not long after coming home to us, he made his mama his person. He followed me everywhere. He loved to just be near me, and I felt the same about him. Neko had the best temperament around everyone and everything. He just was chill. Never complained not even when he got sick. He just wanted his momma, and I was there with him every step of the way. There will never be another like my Neko Brown. He was the epitome of unconditional love. He changed my heart forever.
