

Nemo Compton

November 16, 2017

Nemo was with us for almost 14 years. We will miss him so much. He would bite the glass door when he wanted in; so, we lovingly nicknamed him "Idiot." His favorite toy was "mousey mouse." He would shake it by the tail and loved chasing it when we threw it. He loved his treats. He would get one when he wanted out to do his business. Soon he thought he got a treat for just going out. So he went out a lot. And most of the time, he did get a treat because he looked at you and you couldn't say no. We know that Nemo is running free with no pain, but the pain we feel will last for some time. We know that we will see him again one day.
