

Nightshade Engle

April 30, 2022

He was the clingiest loveable cat I had ever met. His hugs and kisses which were always given freely, are missed by far the most. He comforted us in all ways and put smiles to our lips. He was a lover to all who met him. Our little love bug, Dark One, and beloved pizza thief. We love you baby boy. You are the best con that we ever fell for.
