

Oakley Raleigh

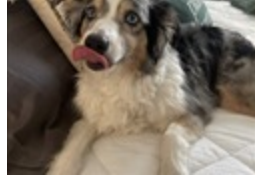

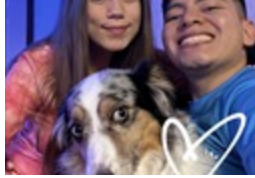

January 15, 2025

Oakley Bardelang, Luis and I are so incredibly lucky we got you as our doggie. From the day we got you, we knew you were our best friend. You immediately started guarding the door and spending all your time right beside us. Even though it took you a while to warm up and get use to your new home, the amount of relief we had when you started playing with all your toys gave us pure happiness. We loved seeing how your anxiety relieved while you were with us, and how you started to really show your personality and became the crazy, silly, and playful Oakley we love. We will forever miss all the little things you did everyday. Like laying on mommy's stomach when you wanted me to get up, or all your zoomies before bedtime, and the way you greet us everytime one of us came home. Seeing your toys everywhere, your food bowl, your fur still all over our clothes, and paw prints still outside is truly breaking my heart. I cannot imagine that I really won't see you again. I am desperately looking for you every where we go. You were just as much of an angel on earth as you are now in heaven. Mommy and Daddy love you so much Oakley Pokie.
