

Odin Boucher - Rupp

December 26, 2025

Odin, our beloved "Big Pooper, " was a soulful boy who filled our lives with love for over twelve years. He was the ultimate champion of "tug tug" and a gentle role model for many foster dogs from RescuedOhio. Even as a puppy with "shark-like" teeth—which a few books succumbed to—he was filled with joy and was a friend to everyone he met. He lived for "bye-bye car rides" and our trips to Devils Lake, MI. Though he famously hated the water, he was happiest visiting Grandma Rupp at the lake and acting as the official mascot for sunset cruises on the pontoon boat with his favorite people. Wherever we were, he was known for his 9 PM walks, his love for a post-walk carrot, and being a world-class couch potato who found great comfort suckling on his favorite green blanket. Odin leaves behind his heartbroken human family and his siblings, Ollie (Ollivander Stinky-Doodle) and Georgie Glenn. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests making a donation to RescuedOhio (<https://www.rescuedohio.org/index.php/giving/>) in Odin's memory to help other dogs find their forever homes. Run free, sweet boy. We love you always.
