

Old Man Eichmann

January 31, 2021

You came to my family when we least expected it. You quickly became my best friend. When I was down you would change my whole world and make it better. I knew you wouldn't be around forever but you impacted my life. You will be forever missed Old Man but never far from my heart.