2008 When I first meet you I have loved you. You was a parvo puppy, but you was so strong and fought it. You had love for everyone and so much heart you had it on the outside, for all to see. Diesel, Shiba, Oscar, & Chloe miss you. I miss you so much, my heart aches but I am so glad your pain is gone. Thank you buddy for your love and your unending support. We will be together again one day, that will be the best day ever! Stay strong till then buddy.
