

Panda Davies

November 24, 2018

Panda, by far, had the most personality of any pet I've ever had (and I've had many!). He had such a loving, loud purr, loved to attack once too much attention was given, loved to eat and steal food, loved to hump wool blankets (which was a source of entertainment and humor in our family). He was passionate and loud, a bully to his sibs, yet cuddled up with them regularly. He just made us smile, roll our eyes and yell - all at the same time! We called him : Panda, Pandinko, Dinkie, Dinko-Doodle, Mr Pandinko, McDoinakle, Pandoo, Pandir, Panderosa Steakhouse, Pandoohk, and many more. He was big (ranging from 18-24 pounds!), loud and just so absolutely full of life. We will miss and love him forever!
