

Patrick Sampson

December 11, 2006 - October 17, 2018

Pat was my furry shadow and my best friend. He was my first good morning and my last good night. We called him the head cheerleader because he loved everyone, and was always the center of attention. I can't believe he was taken so quickly, but I'm so grateful to have had him in my life.

Love and miss you Bubbub.
