

Pepper Kline

November 20, 2023

Pepper found me 12 years ago and asked for my help. I saw what kind of life she was living and made sure that she would live better than that. I loved her from day one. She was the first cat I called mine and we were soul mates.

She was there when I needed her and I was there for her.

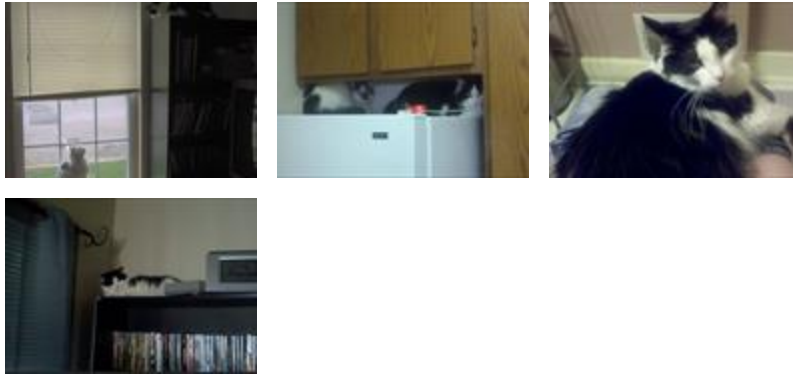

Having to say goodbye to her was the hardest thing I have ever had to do. My heart is broken and a huge part of me died with her. I will miss her flopping down on my chest when it's time for bed, or her clawing at the blanket because she wanted under them to snuggle between my legs. I miss her tyrannosaurus cry for my attention and her greeting me at the door when I come home. I miss her sitting millimeters from my face when she needed pets and her instinctual need to chew everything.

I will miss her until I die, and I hope we will be reunited then.

“ Pep was a really special cat with a huge personality. She was super sweet, and also hilarious. I will always remember sharing some of the best times of my life with Pep, Lils, and Mana ❤️. I know she's up in cat heaven now, giving Meat all the bit*h slaps her little heart desires. I hope these pictures make you smile when you see them. They were the best times ❤️
