

Pumpkin Irvin

February 14, 2006 - July 3, 2018

Pumpkin was my beloved companion and an ornery little gal. She portrayed a protective front, but didn't have a mean bone in her body. She loved running through the woods leading me on the quad. She was the best mouser ever. I was always greeted with kisses and snuggles when I came home. I am thankful for the time we had together; she will be forever missed.

~Kip Irvin~

Tribute Wall

CR

“Pumpkin was one of the best. She was always up for a walk in the woods and would insist on it if you went anywhere near the quad. She love to do her own thing, but her protective nature kept her close by. I will miss her happy, kissy greetings and will even miss her ‘move over kicks’ in the middle of the night. She had the perfect blend of independence, protectiveness, and sweetness. I miss her so much.

Carrie Russell - July 12, 2018 at 11:24 AM

MY

What wonderful sentiments I love it

Mary yoakam - July 12, 2018 at 05:26 PM