

Roxy Truitt

July 4, 2017 - February 14, 2020

I have never loved a pet and when I met Roxy she immediately touched my soul. She was almost human in her ways. She made me laugh all day. She was my best friend. I miss her everyday, all day. I know she knew she was loved. I know she was out of pain now. She fly's with beautiful wings and i will still love her forever.
