

Roxy White

November 3, 2005 - June 26, 2020

I remember when I got the call from the kids, “Mom, you have to leave work. We have to get to the Humane Society our puppy’s there” lo and behold they were right, you were perfect. Beautiful smile, bright eyes, not too big, playful, and man were you quick – you bolted out of the kennel, into the lobby, out the first set of doors before we caught you. It was love at first sight and you became our Roxy.

There are too many memories to put down on paper. From your protective nature for your kids, your imitation of other animals – you had a great dinosaur impression - to the look you gave when we tried to take your picture, we loved you through them all.

You’ve had so many names – Roxanne Abigail (when you were in trouble), Rouce, Rucifer, Dirlie Dirl, Old Lady and Pretty Girl. At the end of the day, you will always be our Roxy. Our hearts are a little lighter now because you’ve left a hole there. Run free Pretty Girl until we meet again.
