

Samantha Forgotten4Paws

October 2, 2020

Before the pandemic, Samantha went every Saturday for three hours to Mohun Health Care Center to visit long and short term patients to brighten their day.

She also kept company to an older woman during the week. She came to Forgotten 4 Paws as a feral cat and developed into a service animal bringing lost of joy to a lot of people.

-Gabriele Everhart - Forgotten 4 Paws