

Sammi Nelson

October 30, 2005 - December 4, 2021

We lived in the country, and someone must have dropped him on our property. We had a mouse in our home, and he never left. He was a very friendly cat. He loved laying on our lap and loved to be petted. When he wanted my attention in the night, he would jump on the bed and run his paw thru my hair. We loved him very much.
