

Samson Conwell

June 8, 2008 - April 12, 2018

Samson (Shilo's What Legends Are Mayd Of, BOSS, CGC, CGCA, TDI) was born on June 8, 2008. He was the biggest puppy, second born "orange boy" of the 8-puppy Mayd litter. He was chunky, fluffy, and full of life. His human daddy wanted a Golden Retriever since he was a young man and had picked his name a year before he was born.

Samson's favorite toys were his Planet Dog Orbee (white with orange continents) and his glow in the dark balls. Samson loved to bat them around like a soccer player and chomp on them, which made a sucking sound. He loved swimming, playing ball, and cuddling with his mommy and daddy. He loved laying in the yard in the sun with a breeze while his mommy and daddy were outside with him. He loved

"pupervising" his mommy and daddy while they worked on various projects or worked out. He was loyal, loving, sensitive, cuddly, independent, smart, funny, stubborn, silly, majestic, expressive, and the list could go on forever. He made life so much brighter for those that met him.

Samson was a therapy dog through Therapy Dogs International (TDI). He visited the patients and staff at The Mark H. Zangmeister Cancer Center, Dublin Methodist Hospital, and facilities through Capital City Hospice. He brought joy to many people over his years of therapy visits.

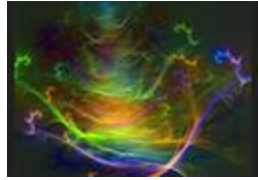

We want to thank Dr. Rachel Kovac, Dr. Megan Brown, Dr. Emma Warry and the entire oncology team at Ohio State for caring for him. Thank you to Dr. Daniel Gordon, Dr. Brittany Feldhaeusser, and the entire ICU/ER team at Ohio

State. We also want to thank Dr. Erik Weisgerber and Dr. Jill Yaissle at Beechwold Veterinary Hospital and Dr. Carrie Crouse at Paws in Balance. He leaves behind his mommy and daddy, Rachel and Mark Conwell, who will miss him and love him forever. He also leaves behind his golden pack members Lilah, Barnum, and Kaly who love him and will miss him as well. We will see you in heaven our sweet boy. "We love you to the moon and back PuPu."
