

Sheffield's Gentleman Dewey

June 30, 2009 - June 23, 2020

Remembering Dewey

Sheffield's Gentleman Dewey a.k.a. Dewey was born June 30, 2009 on a horse farm in Middleburg, VA and adopted at seven weeks old by his forever family. On June 23, 2020, Dewey went to sleep peacefully in his mum's loving embrace at Diley Hill Animal Hospital in Canal Winchester, OH.

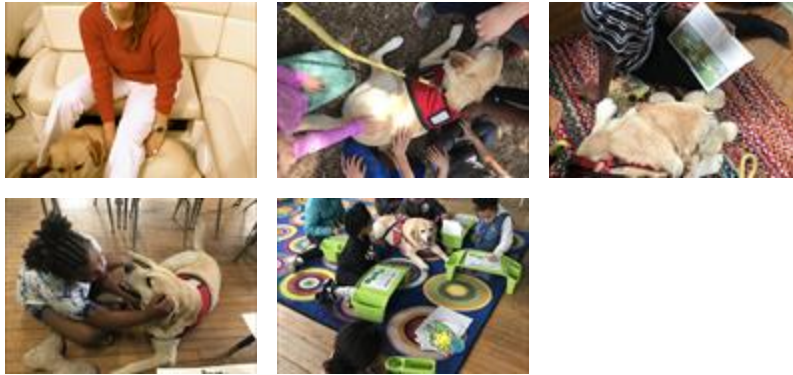

Blessed with a big heart and the gift of service, Dewey lived a memorable decade filled with love, learning, adventure, and purpose. After receiving his AKC Canine Good Citizen, Service Animal, and Animal Assisted Therapy Certification, Dewey served in schools, therapy/residential programs, children's hospitals, and nonprofit communities in Virginia, Washington, D.C., and Ohio. He also helped and inspired children to read and practice literacy, character strengths, and leadership skills through "Reading Tails, What Would Dewey Do?", and PhD Dewey." Beyond his canine companion duties, he loved morning walks, afternoon naps, pup cups, road trips, everything beach, anything water, hanging out with horses, and spending time with family and friends.

In his own special way, Dewey's gracious presence, adventurous spirit, unconditional love, faithful friendship, and comforting smile made the world a better and brighter place to be.

Tribute Wall

DT

“ In honor of National Pet Memorial Day and as we continue to move forward through this tough time of losing our canine companion and furry friend, Dewey's Tribe [friends, colleagues, students, fans, and family] would like to share happy thoughts and images to honor his life, our love for him, and to remember his spirit - we sure do miss you, Dewey!

“ This message is well past due; Dewey will forever be missed by many. Dewey was a local celebrity at our U-Haul shop! He always came in with tail wagging, and a smile on his face 😊 He especially loved our concrete floors to cool off on. He will truly be missed, and we are sad to learn of his passing, but we know he is being looked after ❤️

With love,

“ Seven days after Dewey's passing, Charlotte [Dewey's companion animal and forever friend] passed away from a broken heart on what would have been Dewey's 11th birthday, June 30. Charlotte and Dewey were truly kindred spirits and are now together, once again.

“ L, God blessed you with Dewey's companionship and love so that you would know Him better. He was always with you, he loved you unconditionally, he provided you with comfort when needed and so much more. This is what your Heavenly Father continues to do. Keep your focus on the goodness of the Lord as you remember the joy Dewey gave you and many others and received in return. I know you will miss him dearly! Love you dear sister. Ed

“ L. My heart hurts for you and your mom over your loss of Dewey. The Lord certainly had a plan for Dewey..he loved and ministered to so many. The two of you put such a big smile on my face when I first met Dewey...his big heart and mission to serve were self evident. I loved the stories about his friendship with Charlotte...a true gentleman indeed.
You are in my prayers.
