

Snuggle Bunny

March 6, 2018

When I first met you, you were a stubborn young bunny. You liked to escape your cage at the pet store and when I would come to visit, you would come up to me. The day I took you home the pet store owner decided you were special to me and you needed to come home with me. I picked you up, gave you a kiss, put you in your cage, and took you home. When we got home I held you and you snuggled up to me and fell asleep and that is when I named you “Snuggle Bunny.” You loved to be out of your cage to hop around the house and your infamous hop-kick that everyone loved. You loved to play outside on your harness with your doggy sister Jasmine who would hold your leash and walk around the yard with you. You are now at rainbow bridge with your sister Jasmine but I want you to know mommy will always love you and miss you. You will always be my Snuggle Bunny aka “Snuggles.”
