

Tiger Soto

May 29, 2018 - October 15, 2025

Tiger is /was the very best companion that I've ever had! She is/ was my therapy best friend! The only time Tiger didn't want her mama was when she was in heat then she'd go to her dad lol! Tiger snuggled up with me whenever I was laying down for the night or if I was just sitting in my bed watching tv! She is/ was the best playful kitten to cat until she hit her senior age at age 7 I think after that she didn't want to play much. Tiger is/ was such a ball of joy I mean she brought me joy whenever I was depressed. She's let me pet her for hours until she got tired of it & then she'd meowed at me which meant mom stop! I love u Tiger & I'll miss u but at least your with your brother Cuddles!
