

Too Many Blazy

February 16, 2023

Too Many was the most loving pet a girl could have. He would always want to jump in my lap or have me carry him in my arms or lay on my shoulders. He would always sleep with me and follow me around to be close to me. He loved his best friend Tachi and fathered their kittens until they were old enough to leave. He will always be my Best Friend and will stay in my heart for the rest of my life. RIP Too Many, i'll always remember you and your extra toes.
