

Tootsie Kennedy

March 17, 2024

Tootsie- named for one white toe-was My Sweet Pewter Gray Baby. Pushed aside by the mama cat, she was bottle fed until she could be weaned. Toots had an attitude as big ans as ferocious as a lion. Don't try to make the bed until she decide to move!! For almost 21 years she was there for me and she'll always be special in my heart.
