

Tucker Roo Starr

March 7, 2011 - January 16, 2022

For 10 years he was by my side through all of my big life changes- relationships, marriage and finally kids. He was my buddy, my constant shadow, and there will Forever be a void with him gone. He was always in tune with me. He could tell when I was sad, or if I was getting ready to go run, and he was always up for an adventure. I miss him nudging my hand to pet him, his warm body curled up next to me, how he got so excited to go for a run and had our route memorized. The way he greeted me at the top of the stairs when I came home. Watching him be the Best puppy brother to my boys. Forever in our hearts, "Bubba".
