

Tyson (Boo Boo) Newman

October 6, 2018

Boo Boo brought a lot of joy to this family while we watched him grow, play, swimming, snuggling, and snoring during our movie time. He loved the park and swimming the most but, he was not fond of clean water when it came to bathing after a fun day at the park and swimming in the creek near the park. He would give you the impression that he was being punished for getting dirty, looking at you with his droopy eyes and head hanging low.
