

Uno Phillimore

August 31, 2014 - March 31, 2025

"Uno" my precious little LOVE. He was the most Affectionate & loving little doggie. Not a mean trait in him. He loved his cookies (AKA) treats. Uno loved to steal his brother Chancey's food at times. he loved to roll in anything to make him dirty, especially he mulch & mud. Nite Nite was always the que for bedtime, which sleeping in the big ball love sac was his favorite. No matter what time of the day it was, Uno would be igh at the front door looking out the window waiting for me to come home. My heart is broken. I miss him so much. The bond I had with him was so rare and special. He made every waking day better. Uno will always be the one that touched my heart like no other. He will always continue to be heavy in my heart. My Forever Love to you UNO....

Love Mommy xoxo
