

Winky Colegrove

July 31, 2011 - December 8, 2025

She was a smart pain in the butt. She would choose when to listen and push buttons I didn't know I had. But she was also a huge part of my heart and would make me laugh so hard. She always wanted to be with me or her grams. Comfort knowing she's with her sister and her Aunt.. Winky I miss your sass and your loves.. momma loves you little miss thing
