

Winston Harris

February 17, 2009 - April 9, 2024

He was truly one of a kind. I grew up with him and we used to play tug of war, run in the yard and in the snow. One winter I had to tackle him in a thick layer of snow when he ran out the door. He was so cute licking snow off his nose. He was very happy, outgoing and friendly to all. We loved how he would lick the baby gate, it was one of his quirks. He was a great dog!
