

Wubbus

October 3, 2017 - October 5, 2017

A 2 day old baby that got separated from her mother (reasons unknown) and fate sent her to my hands and heart.

The moment she was handed to me I dropped everything and spent the next 5 hours trying to save her. We rushed from two local vets to OSU emergency where she passed away. Only 2 days old, and in my family for 5 hours, but will be forever loved.
