

Zeus Potter

October 10, 2024

They love us more than themselves. On good days and bad, Zeus would always greet you with a smile and want on your lap. Rich or poor, healthy or sick, right beside you they stick. They'll give you some of your happiest days and when they leave, it'll be one of your worst. All they ask is for our love and care. If loyalty made us live longer, then Zeus would outlive all. Zeus was the best farm dog. He loved all toys. He loved unwrapping gifts on Christmas. He loved going on car rides and getting chicken nuggets from a drive thru. The farm isn't the same without you Zeus. Zeussy We Love You!
