

Zoe Tienprasid

October 10, 2018

I adopted Zoe about 11 years ago from a shelter in Colorado. I was warned that she tried to bite everyone...that she'd been abused. And that's how I knew she was MY dog.

She loved me from the first time we met, no bites. Only pure, unconditional love. So really...I think she chose me!

Until we meet again, my sweet Zoe-Bear...you will be in my heart always.
